

Researchers have found that although talent is a factor of success, opportunity and circumstances play a greater role in determining the success of any one person. As a parent, you can proactively take steps to build the launch pad of your child's future by affording them the right environment to bring out and develop their talent into success. The Bifm Letlotlo Education Fund can help you create the first of many opportunities for your child by investing for their education today. At your own pace, and according to your own affordability, take the first step towards building your child's future. Open a Bifm Letlotlo Education Fund account today.

"Success is not a random act. It arises out of a predictable and powerful set of circumstances and OPPORTUNITIES."
